ALL ENQUIRIES WELCOME

RECIPROCAL RIGHTS: Reciprocal rights are offered to members of all family history societies who visit our room to do research (proof of current membership is required).

The Society does not hold itself responsible for statements made or opinions expressed by authors of the articles published in Genie-Allergy. All care is taken to be accurate, however the Editor reserves the right to publish abridged articles/special features due to space constraints.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Welcome to all our new members who have joined the Family History Society over the last few months - I trust you will enjoy what is on offer in the rooms. Our Monitors, who volunteer their time, are only too happy to assist you in any way they can.

In the last month we have upgraded three computers. This was mainly possible because of a Grant from the Federal Government. When you enter the room you will notice the large computers that used to restrict leg room have been removed and replaced by a few square boxes on the desk next to the screens.

The Computers have been upgraded to Windows 10, which we hope will help in the operation of the programs that have been loaded on the 'server'. However this does come with a downside as various programs like 'Digger' will no longer work on these computers. At the moment we have left one computer to operate solely for these programs. This, I hope, will only be a temporary arrangement. A new Printer has also been installed to replace the older and somewhat noisy Samsung.

The Annual General Meeting is fast approaching (Saturday 23 September). I am hopeful that there will be overwhelming enthusiasm from members to participate on the Committee - using new ideas, energy and skills to help make our Family History Society even more successful in the future.

Stan Gordon, President #1610

The tree of life for some has cast its shade. We must make sure their memories never fade.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING SATURDAY 23rd SEPTEMBER 2017

The Notice for the AGM and Statement of Receipts & Payments for the last financial year is included in this Journal. Only financial members are eligible to vote at the AGM.

Any financial member may be nominated for election to the Committee by any other two financial members. Nomination forms are available from our Research Room or a copy can be emailed (contact the Secretary). Closing date for nominations is 4pm on 16th September. Completed forms should be placed in the drawer marked 'Secretary' above the Admin Desk.

LYNETTE JENNIFER (NEE TRIGG) AND WILLIAM HERBERT CAMERON

Is anyone able to help with contact details for descendants of Lynette Jennifer (nee Trigg) and William Herbert Cameron? Recently many family photographs of this couple were left at our Family History Rooms and we would very much like to return photographs etc. to their family.

Last year when we had a ‘Show and Tell’ Workshop, member #1493, SERGIO SPAGNOLO brought along a draft copy of a large photograph which he had been working on for many years.

Sergio’s parents were part of a strong Italian community who migrated to the Coffs Harbour area in the years before and after the Second World War. The photo was of 134 members of the Italian community who had attended the St. Augustine’s Catholic Church for the ordination of REV. FATHER JOHN DACEY on 24 July 1956.

Following the ordination, the congregation celebrated the event at Bonville / Sawtell Reserve on the 29 July 1956 where the photograph was taken and copies of the photograph were presented to Italian families following the celebration. Sergio was 10 years old at the time and he is one of the people in the image along with other members of the Italian community.

Over many years with the help of members of the Italian community and using his expertise as a professional photographer, he researched the photograph and the history of the local Italian community to produce a detailed record of the celebration.

During June, Sergio and Father Dacey presented framed copy of the end result to the Coffs Harbour Regional Museum and Father Dacey presented a copy to the Catholic Church. The photograph has a number for each of the names and a headshot of each of the 134 people with their allocated number for easy reference. We congratulate Sergio on a job well done.

SUE MURPHY’S LUCK

Recently our Society had a request from Sue Murphy from Tasmania regarding her grandfather, Robert CLARK, and some property he owned in the Nana Glen area (or so she thought). She had heard the property was named ‘Glenada’ and she was under the impression the family had a banana plantation and possibly a dairy farm.

In October 2016, the Royal Australian Historical Society, in conjunction with Coffs Harbour District Family History Society Inc. presented an RAHS/Coffs Harbour District Regional Seminar. One of the speakers was Associate Professor, Carol Liston, who spoke about and provided advice and guidance in accessing and using the historically significant records that Land and Property Information had made available through their website.

Following this Seminar, one of our members, Ian O’Hearn, informed us that he would be happy to assist any of our Monitors who felt they needed a hands-on, crash course in accessing this information. Ian had spent much time doing Land Title Research and felt it could be often quite tricky to access the information successfully. The workshop was held on 5th June and Ian did an excellent job guiding the Monitors in using the site to access the available records.

Sue Murphy’s request had only arrived a few days before the workshop so her timing couldn’t have been better. At the workshop, Christine Berridge and Sharon Ingersole offered to use the information Sue had supplied to get some practice accessing records. Fortunately they were successful in locating the properties and finding the titles which showed Sue’s grandparents’ names.

After more extensive searching by Marlene Gordon on the Historic Land Record’s website, it was determined that the parcels of land they were seeking were actually located in the Dairyville area.

Portions 43, 45 and 10 were nearby - situated along the 'river' which is now little more than a dry creek bed.

Marlene Gordon followed up with more research and by comparing Parish maps, SIX Maps and Google Maps; it was possible to get a better idea of the locality of the properties. Arrangements were made for Sue and her husband Chris to visit our rooms as they passed through Coffs, heading from Murwillumbah back to Tasmania via Sydney.

Marlene handed the information that she had gathered over to Fiona Hulbert (a monitor that morning), with extra bits and pieces that had been located on 'Trove' regarding members of the family and also various references to members of the family located in books in our library.

Sue arrived in Coffs Harbour on a wet and miserable morning and was astounded at the information that had been discovered – especially that the location of the land had been found with such accuracy. Her enthusiasm at being directed to the location was infectious and left those of us still in the rooms with a real buzz of excitement after they had set off to see what they could find.

Following her visit, Sue emailed to let us know the outcome of all our hard work in finding Robert CLARK's properties and when they drove to the Dairyville area found the residents extremely helpful. They noticed a 'Glenada' sign on a new house quite close to the road and found out it was situated on portion 43. The new owners had replaced the original house and had been informed of its original name by a neighbour who lives on the same, but now divided property. They drove on and spoke with a gentleman whose family had lived in the area for over 130 years who knew of the CLARK property where there had once been a banana plantation - others they had spoken to were not so sure that was the case. He took them in his 4-wheel drive over rough wet roads and showed them Portion 45 way up the back in the hills. He also showed them photos of the area where the banana plantations used to be on Portion 10, a long way back in the valley up to the ridge line. It was thought Sue's grandparents returned to dairy farming when the bottom fell out of the banana market just after 1937.

In conclusion, it was an immense pleasure to play a part in Sue's successful visit to Coffs Harbour and to note the results wouldn't have been achieved without the chain of events which made it possible involving Carol Liston, Ian O'Hearn, and our Monitors. It was a wonderful learning experience for us all.

NOTE:

We now have a special folder available to researchers in our room, with detailed instructions for researching Land Records. It also includes several pages provided by Ian O'Hearn which list Torrens Title References for some Parishes in the Coffs Harbour Region and the 'Town of Coffs Harbour'. It is much easier to locate Land Title documents if you already know the Volume and Folio numbers for a property.

BACKGROUND HISTORY OF ROBERT GEORGE AND SUSAN CLARK OF 'GLENADA' UPPER ORARA

ROBERT GEORGE CLARK was the youngest of 12 children, born 18 August 1881 to MARY ANNE (UPHAM, nee LESTER) age 46, and JAMES CLARK, her second husband, aged 49. Having emigrated from England individually, and after Mary's first husband's death, they married and farmed in Gulgong, NSW living there for many years.

Robert with his father James Clark (pioneer)

Susan Harris

SUSAN HARRIS was born on 8 January, 1885 in Auckland, New Zealand to CLEMENCE HARRIS and SUSAN (nee BACHE). Clemence, a chemist and Susan moved to Australia and bought a pharmacy in Gulgong in the late 1890's.

Robert Clark and Susan Harris grew up in Gulgong and probably went to the same school. They married in Ashfield, New South Wales, on 3 July 1907 when he was 25 years old. They lived in Ryde, Sydney, where they had a corner store and a poultry farm. They had 6 children including a set of twins. Sadly the male twin died in infancy so they were left with 5 daughters.

Robert and Susan later moved to Camden, where they ran a dairy farm and moved to Ingleburn, NSW for a short while in 1934/5 before relocating and buying 'Glenada' in Upper Orara, in 1936.

Here they had a banana plantation where their three youngest daughters did a lot of the heavy work loading bananas onto the back of a truck on steep property (Lot 10). They also had a dairy farm when the bottom fell out of the banana market in 1937. They lived here during the war years when some young soldiers would visit them, after military training exercises in the rainforest around the area, which was thought to be similar to New Guinea where they were eventually sent.

Their daughter DORIS was engaged to Mr CHEGWIN and HAZEL their youngest, was also engaged to ALAN (surname unknown) who went off to war and sadly never returned.

The Clarks remained at 'Glenada' until Susan's death on 5th January, 1946. Susan was only 60 and they had been married 38 years. Their house has now gone and been replaced with a new house bearing the same 'Glenada' nameplate.

After his wife's death, Robert aged 65, bought a property at Glenreagh, near Nana Glen, where he stayed till the 1960's. At the age of 82 he moved to his daughter, VALERIE's home in Glenbrook in the Blue Mountains and later bought a 5 acre property outside Penrith at Luddenham, where he grew his own vegetables and kept many chickens.

ROBERT GEORGE CLARK died on 5 July 1972 at Bodington Hospital-Nursing Home, Wentworth Falls, where he had resided for a few years. He was 90 years old.

Thanks to Sue Murphy for this interesting information and photographs.

Letter from Sue Murphy to the Coffs Harbour District Family History Society

'In June this year my husband and I visited Coffs Harbour with the express desire to find the property 'Glenada' as I have personal letters written by my grandmother Susan Clark to her daughter in 1943, from there. These were written only a couple of years before she died. My mother, their youngest daughter had told me stories about her teenage life at 'Glenada'.

On exploring the area of Upper Orara, due to the kind researchers at CHFHS, and talking to one local business we were directed towards Mr Robert Hunter, whose family have lived in the area for 130 years, and who was a minefield of local history. Mr Hunter, when approached by us, kindly dropped everything he was doing, to tell us what he knew of 'Glenada' and to take us out in his jeep in the pouring rain to show us the properties of my grandparents. He also showed us aerial photos of one of the 'Glenada' properties (Lot 10) with the remnants of the banana plantation clearly seen. We spent a very enjoyable afternoon with Mr. Hunter and are very grateful for his help.

I might add that having since been in touch with Mr. Hunter, he, inspired by our visit, is now endeavouring to record his own family history, which he told us he had been intending to do for some time. He may appreciate some help with this if anyone from CHFHS would be available to approach him. He is a lovely old gentleman and I will stay in touch with him. I would also thank again the CHFHS researchers, Fiona and Marlene and all who attended the workshop, for their diligent research. None of this would have happened without their knowledge and experience.

*Sue Murphy,
Hobart'*

THE ORIGIN OF COMMON NICKNAMES

Why is Bill from William?

There are many theories on why Bill became a nickname for William; the most obvious is that it was part of the Middle Ages trend of letter swapping. Bill a rhyming nickname for Will. Some believe Will morphed into Bill for phonetic reasons. When William III ruled over in England in the late 17th century, his subjects mockingly referred to him as 'King Billy'.

Why is Dick from Richard?

The name Richard is very old and was popular during the Middle Ages. In the 12th and 13th centuries everything was written by hand and Richard nicknames like Rich and Rick were common just to save time. Rhyming nicknames were also common and eventually Rick gave way to Dick and Hick, while Rich became Hitch. At one point in England, the name Dick was so popular that the phrase 'every Tom, Dick, or Harry' was used to describe Everyman.

Why is Jack from John?

Way back in the Middle Ages, a common way to make names smaller or shorter is to add -kin, -in, or -cock to the end. Jen was their way of saying John so John became Jankin or Jenkin, which eventually became shortened to Jakin, which in turn became Jack. They were originally used as a generic name for peasants. The name Jack worked its way into words such as lumberjack and steplejack, jackass, which is commonly used for a donkey.

Why is Hank from Henry?

The name Henry dates back to medieval England. (At that time, Hank was a nickname for John.) Hendrick is the Dutch form of the English name Henry. Henk is the small form of Hendrick, ergo, Hank from Henk.

Why is Harry from Henry?

Since Medieval times, Harry has been a nickname for boys named Henry in England. Henry was also very popular among British monarchs, most of whom preferred to be called Harry by their subjects

Why is Chuck from Charles?

Charles in Middle English was Chukken and that's probably where the nickname was born. "Dear Chuck" was an English term of endearment and Shakespeare, in Macbeth, used the phrase to refer to Lady Macbeth.

Why is Jim from James?

There are no definitive theories on how Jim became the commonly used nickname for James, but the name dates back to at least the 1820s. For decades, Jims were pretty unpopular due to the "Jim Crow Law," which was attributed to an early 19th century song and dance called "Jump Jim Crow," performed by white actors in blackface. The name "Jim Crow" soon became associated with African Americans and by 1904, Jim Crow aimed to promote segregation in the South. Jim has since shed its racial past, and is once again a popular first name for boys all by itself, sans James.

Why is Ted from Edward?

The name Ted is result of the Old English tradition of letter swapping. There were a limited number of first names in the Middle Ages, letter swapping allowed people to differentiate between people with the same name. It was common to replace the first letter of a name that began with a vowel, as in Edward, with an easier to pronounce consonant, such as T. Of course, Ted was already a popular nickname for Theodore, which makes it one of the only nicknames derived from two different first names.

Why is Peggy from Margaret?

Meg, Meggie, Peg, Peggy, Pegeen, Margery, Margot, Megan (a Welsh name shortened), Daisy (the French for 'daisy' is marguerite, thus short for Margaret)

Meg, Mog and Maggie are obvious nicknames, Mog/Meg later morphed into the rhymed forms Pog(gy) and Peg(gy).

Why is Sally from Sarah?

Sarah is an original Hebrew name. Sally was primarily used as a nickname for Sarah in England and France. Sally was by replacing the R in Sarah with an L.

Why is Molly/ Polly from Mary?

The name Mary is a Hebrew baby name. Molly/Polly, are common nicknames for Mary. Again, R was replaced by the L.

Why is Nancy from Annis/ Annie?

Nancy is a smaller name for Annis but since the 18th century it has been a shorter name of Ann.

MY WONDERFUL NEW FAMILY HISTORY RESOURCE

We included an article from member, Val Kinghorne in our June Journal and now Val has more to add on her good fortune. We also received comments from members of other Societies who had read the article.

‘I’d like to add more as a follow up to ‘My Wonderful New Family History Resource’ in our June edition of Genie Allergy relating to my FOX, STONE AND LEACOCK families:

I had joined ‘County Derry Genealogy’ Facebook page as my great grandmother on my mother's side this time, MATILDA LEACOCK, had journeyed from there in 1854 and was followed by her sister Jane in 1858. Immigration records showed that their mother Margaret had died and their father WILLIAM LEACOCK was still living in BALLYNASCREEN. I had found his second marriage in 1852 to MARTHA TAYLOR. Margaret and Jane's three half-siblings also emigrated a few years later in 1873, by which time the widowed Martha had married again and produced another daughter.

I mentioned in the earlier article that Patrick O’Kane followed through on my posts on the County Derry site and with Aiden Bradley (the man who looks after the graveyard) worked together to clear the weeds and discovered the Leacock headstone. I didn’t mention before that the churchyard was at ST ANNE’S SIXTOWNS, CAVANREAGH - within sight of the family home.

I have now received copies of the photos that Patrick, his son, daughter and Aiden had taken – before and after. The inscription revealed that this was the resting place of MARGARET LEACOCK, who died 16 May 1851, and her 11 year-old son, William, who died 11 March 1851 – a child whose existence was previously unknown to me. The foot of the stone was revealed: ‘This stone has been erected as a small token of affectionate regard for a beloved mother and brother by MATILDA AND JANE LEACOCK, Bathurst, Australia.’

I sent Patrick a photo of Matilda and her husband JAMES LEABEATER'S grave in the cemetery at LYNDHURST, NSW where she was buried in 1920 and the next communication from Patrick was a copy of an article printed in ‘The Derry Post’ detailing his and Aiden's work on the grave, complete with a photo of two happy Irishmen standing in front of the church behind the restored gravestone.

The final word from Patrick: ‘Val, it has been an incredible journey and everybody in DRAPERSTOWN is totally impressed with the story ‘Talk of the Town.’ I could not resist putting the story in the

DERRY POST to remind people about those who emigrated from BALLINASCREEN to Australia & USA. I am sure you and your family are now at peace knowing exactly where your ancestors are laid to rest both in Cavanreagh and Lyndhurst NSW. There are not many families who know where their Great Great & Great Grandparents are buried. Regards, Patrick.’

There is an odd footnote to the story of AGNES ROSE FOX. A family living in the PEELWOOD area does voluntary work in the old cemetery - they were curious about Agnes' grave as she is the only Fox in the cemetery. At Christmas last year one of their cows, named ‘Mrs Kelly’ gave birth to quadruplets, an amazing event, with all four calves being healthy and strong. The male calf they named Ned, and the three heifers – Agnes, Rose and Fox. I have spoken with these people, and reassured them that I didn't think the naming of the heifers was disrespectful! They now plan to replace the crushed rock on the grave and plant a rose there. They have my gratitude”.

ORIGINAL SOUTHERN CROSS CEMETERY IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Beth Kennedy, member #1357, recently travelled to Western Australia and has given our Society copies of some photos taken at the above Cemetery. Society members, whose email addresses are known to us, were notified and so far one member has found a relative of hers in one of the photos. There are six boards which list Name, Date Died, Age and Cause of Death for the Southern Cross Cemetery in 1898 and another of Lone Graces of the Yilgarn 1888-1899. If you would like copies, please email us at coffsgenie@gmail.com

QUEENSLAND BIRTHS REGISTERED UP TO 1919

Queensland Births online at <https://www.qld.gov.au/law/births-deaths-marriages-and-divorces/family-history-research/> can only be searched up to early 1916 (due to its 100 year access restriction).

There is another way to find births up to 1919 now available online at Findmypast. Births registered up to and including 1919 can now be searched and you can view a transcription to get the exact date of birth, parents’ names including the mother’s maiden name. (This information was included in a blog read at <http://qld-genealogy.blogspot.com.au>)

FamilySearch FILM / FICHE

Microfilm Distribution Services Discontinued:

On September 1, 2017, FamilySearch will discontinue its microfilm distribution services. (The last day to order microfilm will be on August 31, 2017). The change is the result of significant progress in FamilySearch's microfilm digitization efforts and the obsolescence of microfilm technology. Digital imaging has made it easier to find ancestors through the internet, mobile, and other technologies. Here a few commonly asked questions about the replacement of microfilm with digital access:

➤ How are digital images accessed on FamilySearch.org?

Digital image collections can be accessed today in three places on FamilySearch.org under Search. Records includes collections that have been indexed by name or published with an image browse. Books includes digital copies of books from the Family History Library and other libraries, including many books that were previously copied to microfilm. The Catalog includes a description of all the microfilms in the FamilySearch collection. A camera icon appears in the Catalog when a microfilm is available digitally. For additional help, see Finding Digital Images of Records on FamilySearch.org.

➤ How much of the microfilm collection is available online?

Over 1.5 million microfilms (ca. 1.5 billion images) have been digitized by FamilySearch, including the most requested collections based on microfilm loan records worldwide. In addition, many records that FamilySearch has not yet published can be found online on partner or free archive websites. FamilySearch plans to finish microfilm digitization by 2020. Digital images may have contractual, data privacy, or other restrictions. Insofar as possible, restricted images are accessible by logging in with a FamilySearch account or by viewing FamilySearch.org at a family history centre.
